PROJECTS

Automated solar panel defect detection

- This project included solar panel images to be fetched.
- An azure cognitive service's custom vision is used to train the model resulting in defect detection and efficiency calculation of each cell in solar panel.
- Incorporated the exposed api which had coordinates of each cell and each defect along with its defect type.

Foodapes

- Created a food ordering website with React, Redux, Tailwind CSS, Express, and MongoDB.
- Integrated external services including GCP services like geolocation API and Razorpay for payments.
- Deployed on AWS EC2 instances with image storage on AWS S3.

News Scraper

- Engineered an advanced web scraping application leveraging Flask and BeautifulSoup, designed to seamlessly curate news articles and videos from diverse sources. Users can specify keywords, and the tool aggregates this content into a centralized platform, providing a comprehensive news experience.
